Kristin MacRae
Organizing and Efficiency Expert

Paper management is an issue many people struggle with and creating working organized systems can be a challenge for most. In this digital age, paper is still an issue and it will always be here. During this 1-hour presentation, Kristin will give you tips on creating systems for all of the paper that enters your spaces. By the end of this presentation, you'll be motivated and energized to tackle your paper clutter!

(Registration required. Please register at the front desk of the library or call the library to register (860) 886-1010 by Monday, April 1, 2018. Suggested donation of $5 will be collected that night)
