

FORM A.
REQUEST FOR ADVISORY OPINION

Each person covered by the Code that has a beneficial interest, or any other concern in any matter before the Town, shall disclose that interest orally at the time the possible conflict arises.

Pursuant to Sec. 4 E.5, any person covered by the Code may use this form to request an advisory opinion as to whether a conflict of interest exists.

Please answer all of the following questions and attach additional sheets if necessary:

1. Please provide a detailed explanation of the nature of the possible conflict.

2. What section of the Preston Code of Ethics is related to the possible conflict?

I understand that an advisory opinion shall be considered binding and a final decision of the Preston Ethics Commission unless amended, revoked or overruled by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Signed,
